CODE OF ETHICS TO CHECK MALPRACTICES AND PLAGIARISM IN RESEARCH

V.H.N.Senthikumara Nadar College (Autonomous), Virudhunagar is committed to promote and maintain high standards and accountability in research. We are keen on establishing and sustaining a culture of integrity and transparency in research. Ethics and genuineness are the significant components in research and publication. The institute takes every measure to promote the research by encouraging publishing research articles and preventing any misconduct including plagiarism. The institute takes efforts to ensure that the research work is on par with the International standards. The researchers are made responsible for the authenticity of their research work. The institution deprecates and discourages the violation of code of ethics and the copyrights act. The researchers are advised to look in to carefully to the following research related issues such as Conflict of Interest, Disputes about authorship, Duplicate Submission and fabrication or misrepresentation of data or results.

In order to avoid Ethical violations in research and to prevent malpractices like Plagiarism, the Research Guides and Research Scholars are requested

- to conduct all research activities in accord with the accepted high standards.
- to ensure the precision of all data that has been collected and /or used in the research work.
- to make sure that only the accurate data, information and research results are reported.
- to cite every source of information correctly.
- to properly acknowledge and give due credit to the funding source.
- to follow norms regarding bioethics and bio safety.
- to avoid plagiarism, piracy and dishonesty in reporting research results.
